"WITH ONE AIM—TO SERVE STUDENT AND COLLEGE"

Volume XXXV Santa Ana, California, Friday, May 27, 1960 No. 25

Final Dance In Anaheim

Highlight of the social season at Santa Ana College is the annual Spring Banquet and Dance.

This year's gala occasion is set for June 15 at the Disneyland Hotel. Dinner and awards will highlight the early portion of the evening while dancing will climax the festivities.

Lee Ford, drama instructor will present the drama department awards to outstanding students in that field.

Lota Blythe, creative writing instructor and Tavern Post advisor, will present the Tavern Post poetry and prose awards.

Journalism department chairman Carl Venstrom will present journalism keys to two top graduating students contributing the most to the department of journalism. He will also present SAC certificates to outstanding students on the yearbook staff.

The Interclub Council trophy will be presented to the club which has been the most active and of the most service to the college.

Outgoing Associated Students president Bill Mott will speak on behalf of the graduating students. Larry Wentzel, newly elected AS president for next fall will also speak.

Guests for the event will be Dr. and Mrs. John E. Johnson and Dr. and Mrs. Oliver Lawson.

Patrons for the dinner-dance are the John Durlaps, Royal C. Martens, Thomas Trawicks, and Messrs. William Corser, Carl Venstrom and Carl Schulz.

Tickets for the event will be available through June 9. They may be purchased in the Don bookstore for $2.50 a person with AS card and $3.50 without or for a guest.

Police Science Granted Charter

Law enforcement dignitaries joined administrators and police science students of Santa Ana College in chartering the first two-year college chapter of Lambda Alpha Epsilon, national law enforcement fraternity.

"Key" awards for outstanding students were awarded Officer Robert J. Allen of the Santa Ana Police Department and Larry Spaulding, SAC undergraduate student. "Star" awards were given for bravery and outstanding service to Officer Edward Pennywell, who lost his leg in a motorcycle accident and to the widow of Sgt. Myron Trapp, killed on duty.

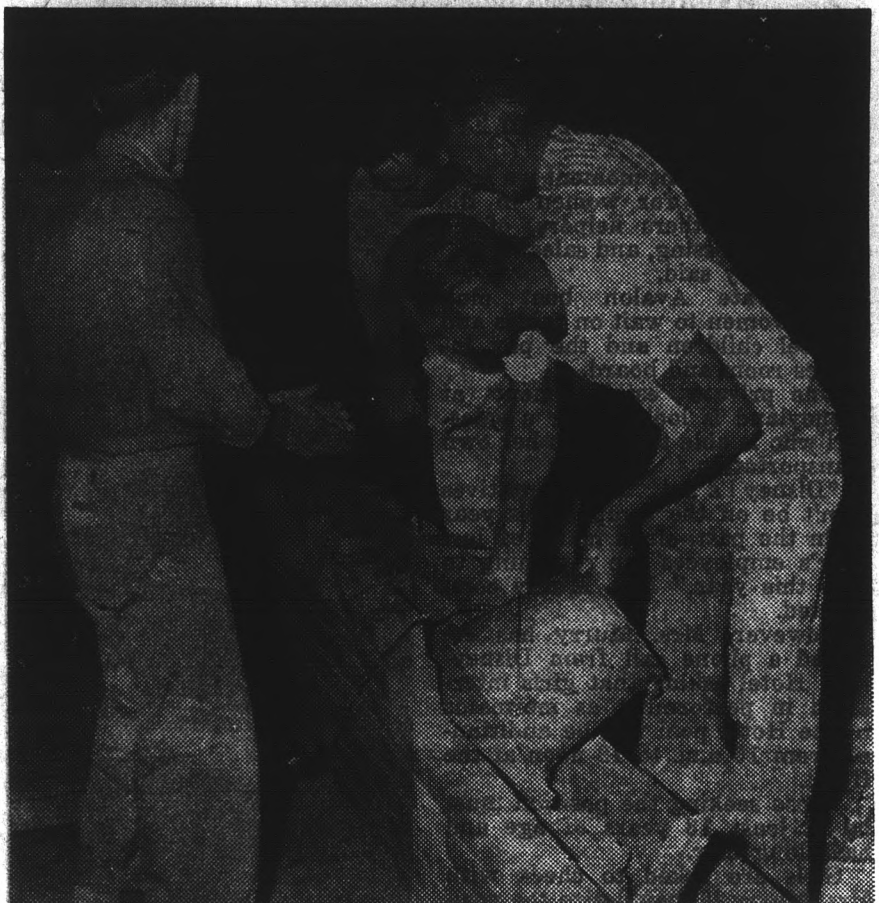

Dr. John P. Kenney, coordinator of police science at the University of Southern California, and Dr. John E. Johnson, SAC President, were the main speakers at the impressive ceremony in the Santa Ana Penthouse Executives Club.

Instructor Maurice Mason is advisor of the fraternity. New officers installed included Vincent Balsinger, sheriff's office, president; James Kennedy, Anaheim Police, vice-president; Delores Smith, District Attorney's office, secretary; Larry Spaulding, SAC, treasurer; and Edward Liptrop, Anaheim Judicial District Marshal's office, sergeant-at-arms.

School Closed Memorial Day

Santa Ana College will join the nation in honoring the many lives that have been lost through the Armed Forces on Memorial Day, May 30.

Classes will not meet Monday but will resume sessions on Tuesday, May 31.

Don Lions Sponsor Construction of Wall

Fulfilling their final service project to the college, the SAC chapter of Don Lions is sponsoring the construction of a decorative brick wall at the corner of 17th Street and Bristol Ave.

The wall, which extends 25 feet in length along the north corner of campus, rises four feet in height. Upon completion the words Santa Ana College will be placed on the wall.

The building of the wall is being handled by the brick layers apprenticeship class under the adult education department announced Mr. Otis Knighton, chairman of the department.

The volunteer workers are putting in eight hour days in addition to two nights a week. The class is under the direction of Mr. Primo Mazzuchelli.

Election Day Set For Commissioners

Associated Students election for the four commissioners positions on the Student Council will be held next Wednesday, June 1.

As of press time six Dons had petitioned.

Petitions have been issued to Maeva Hutter and Barbara Derdzinska for the office of Commissioner of Publicity.

Karen Windh and Pat Levonius are petitioning for Commissioner of Social Activities. One coed has taken out a petition for the office of Commissioner of Assemblies and Rallies, that being Angelina Corpos.

Mike O'Sullivan is the only student who has received a petition for commissioner of Special Student Activities.

Ten Outstanding Men Honored at Banquet

Santa Ana College paid tribute last Wednesday night to the top two per cent of men on campus at the second annual Men of the Year awards banquet at the Cape Cod House.

Twenty-nine men were honored with certificates while the top 10 were singled out for plaque awards.

Santa Ana's nationally recognized Chief of Police Edward J. Allen was the keynote speaker while other head table guests included superintendent of schools Dr. Oliver C. Lawson; college president Dr. John E. Johnson; Deans O. Carl Schulz, Thomas Trawick, and William Corser, and assistant to the president John Dunlap.

Honored as members of the top 10 were:

Don H. Andersen — Fall editor of El Don, president of Knights, Soph. Class President.

Don J. Bissonnette — AMS President, Bill of Rights chairman, member of Knights.

Douglas C. Dyer — Vice-president of AMS, Drum major.

Clifford A. Hutter — Soph. Class Representative, member of Knights, chairman Day of the Don.

Lawrence K. Keith — Commissioner of Assemblies and Rallies, active in dramatic productions, member of Knights.

Alan C. Leonard — A.S. Treasurer, President of Engineers, member of Knights.

Jarrell F. Mauck — Former Commissioner of Special Student Activities, past President of Knights, only man to receive honor two years straight.

H. William Mott — A.S. President, football captain.

Other men honored in the top 29 included James A. Allitto, Edward E. Duncan, Robert H. Fenster, Edwin L. Force, William B. Gogel, John E. Gunn, William M. Hammond, Andrew J. Kormos, Don G. Livingston, Preston E. Marsh.

Also honored were Ronald A. May, C. Jonathan Mitschele, J. Mike O'Sullivan, Edward A. Rice, Junior Stein, Douglas H. Stoner, Dale F. Story, Larry R. Stuart, and William J. Young.

Elizabeth Beall Receives Award

Elizabeth Beall, Santa Ana College sophomore, was awarded the Altrusa Scholarship it was announced this week by the Altrusa Club of Santa Ana.

Miss Beall was selected from a field of 90 girls who had been recommended by faculty members. Of the ninety coeds, three were selected for further evaluation and personal interviews with the Altrusa members. Miss Beall topped SAC students Pat Fleming and Beth Harrison for the $100 award.

Similar awards were given to coed students from Orange Coast College and Chapman College. The scholarship money can be used in any school and for any field of endeavor.

Miss Beall is currently serving as parliamentarian for the SAC Student Council. She also serves as assembly chairman of the Associated Women's Students, is a member of the Supreme Court, and a member of Las Hidas, women's service organization.

Active in dramatics, she is secretary of College Players, is wardrobe mistress for dramatics productions, and she had a part in "The Show-Off" and "Green Grow the Lilacs."

Berman Named El Don Editor

Barbara Berman, Santa Ana College freshman coed, has been named editor of the SAC El Don for the Fall semester, it was announced this week by Journalism Chairman Carl Venstrom.

Miss Berman served as El Don feature editor for the past two semesters. Prior to enrolling at SAC she served as editor of the Garden Grove High School paper.

At the CIPA Conference in San Francisco, Miss Berman was initiated as a member of Beta Phi Gamma, national honorary journalism fraternity. Miss Berman is also a member of the Press Club.

In addition to journalistic activities, Miss Berman is a member of Las Hidas, women's service club; Las Doncellas, women's honorary service club and has served on the AWS board during the last semester.

In the recent Associated Students election, Miss Berman was elected AWS secretary for the coming year.

Miss Berman was the recipient of the Orange County Press Club scholarship and also the Laguna Beach South Coast News Scholarship. She was also honored as one of the outstanding women at SAC in the recent "Woman of the Year" ceremonies.

Barbara Berman . . . El Don Editor

Other editors returning will be sports editor Jerry Wilcox and news editor Barbara Derdzinska. Past editors Don Andersen and Carolyn Bridge will graduate in June.

Graduation Date Set for June 16

The largest group of students to ever receive diplomas at Santa Ana College commencement exercises will be honored Thursday, June 16, at the annual ceremonies. More than 125 students are included in the list of eligibles at this time.

The number of graduates has steadily increased at SAC despite the fact that academic standards have been also stiffened through the years. SAC has also adhered to a position of firm probation requirements. Both of these exacting requirements have served to reduce the number of students completing the academic year, according to Thomas Trawick, Dean of Men. But, he declared, there continues to be a steady increase in the number of total students.

The academic procession of graduates and faculty is one of the features of ceremonies at SAC. Few junior colleges, according to Trawick, organize the cap and gown ceremony. A second SAC feature, integral in higher college and university commencement calendars, is the baccalaureate service. Services will be held this year at the First Christian Church, 1720 West 17th Street. The Rev. Robert Bonhall will deliver the baccalaureate address. Rev. Bonhall is rector of the Episcopal Church of the Messiah.

In addition to the academic honors to be awarded to the outstanding students of the college, Santa Ana College will present its special Achievement Award to three outstanding alumni. This award is given to former students recommended by a special committee of the faculty and who then must be unanimously approved by the whole faculty. Outstanding accomplishment in their chosen field is the principal criteria for the selection.

The three men selected for the award this year are Dr. Warren Hall of UCLA, James A. Smith, Eastman Kodak executive, and Stephen K. Tamura, Orange County Counsel.

Dr. Hall was a member of the 1940 class in Engineering where he won scholastic honors in Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honor society; and American Association of Engineers. He is now assistant dean for undergraduate studies, College of Engineering, University of California.

Smith was a member of the 1927 class. He was in the honor society and a member of Beta Gamma, the honorary scholastic activity society. He joined the Eastman Kodak firm in 1930 and since 1954 has been general manager for the Pacific Southern Sales Division in Los Angeles.

Tamura graduated from SAC in 1930, received his A. B. degree from Pomona College, his L.L.B. at the University of California and his L.L.M. from the Harvard Law School. He was recently elevated to the top position on the county counseling staff.

Back to Earth

With the explosion of the summit conference over the U-2 Spy Plane incident world tension increased by leaps and bounds.

American people and the press began jumping to exaggerated conclusions as to the future of the cold war. Now a week later we're all coming back down to earth.

Writes a columnist with United Features syndicate: "The incident of the American 'spy plane' is being inflated to manifest absurdity. Why don't we, and our friends abroad, quit buying the melodramatic rubbish the Russians are putting out?"

Wrote the New York Times: "The Americans should know, as Mr. Khrushchev knows, that every nation in the world attempts, in peace as well as in war, to learn what it can about its potential enemies. That is not only a function of self-defense, it is a prime requisite. Above all, it is not a question of morals, it is a matter of necessity. Let us have done with the whimpering about espionage being a departure 'from the code of responsible international behavior.' It has been part of the code from the beginning of time and it will be to the end. Unacknowledged, yes; distasteful, as President Eisenhower observed, yes — but necessary and inevitable..."

"Mr. Khrushchev's injured innocence is ludicrous, though in the midst of his threats he does admit that the reconnaissance flight was made 'not as a preparation for war.' It is perfectly natural that he is exploiting all the propaganda advantage possible out of our bad luck and bad judgement — but that does not mean that we must act as though we had been caught in the middle of a Czechoslovakia or a Hungary or a Korea."

America is in the process of awaking to see the picture of the international cold war. Now America must learn to focus on the facts... facts that show we must be ready to meet the problems that surround world tension.

PROSPECTIVE BRIDE EYES JUNE WEDDING PLANNERS

June brings illusions of orange blossoms, long flowing gowns, and heavily frosted white cakes atop which are models of bride and groom.

And it is also the month for prospective brides to begin planning their married future and visualize dreams of family life.

Although pert Jean Grossman has set her date for one year from now to tie the knot with Ray Patschek her visions of married life are engrossing her everyday thoughts.

"I can hardly wait until we have a home of our own with maple furniture and a little dachshund," smiled Jean.

But in the meantime, Ray and Jean find pleasure in visiting Hemet and attending Santa Ana College functions.

"I'll never forget the first time Ray asked me for a date to the Day of the Don dance last year. He told me to dress casual so I wore bermudas, only to find everyone else was dressed in party dresses," Jean winked.

Jean has always been clothes-conscious and has modeled for various downtown Santa Ana fashion shows as well as SAC fashion assemblies.

Jean someday hopes to be a professional fashion model, but her college goals are set toward secretarial fields.

"At present I am studying to be a private secretary since it is a more substantial vocation," Jean commented.

This summer Jean and her family are planning to move from Parton St.

"I've lived in Santa Ana practically all my life and believe it or not, when I get married Santa Ana is the ideal place for me to raise a family," Jean said.

As far as families are concerned, Jean admitted she better put in her order early since she would like two girls and a boy, but Ray would like two boys and a girl!

A year from now seems like a long waiting period, but Jean and Ray are destined to enjoy many happy days before the "Big Day."

NEED A JOB?

Placement Service Lists Sales Jobs for Students

Handling shore boats on Catalina Island for a private boat club and sales work are just two of the many jobs now available in the SAC placement office in Administration 13.

Students wishing summer work are reminded to check the job openings with Mrs. Murry, secretary to Ernest Crain, veteran's counselor and placement office chairman.

"At the present moment we have jobs available for women in the fields of mothers helpers, office work, waitressing, and sales work," Mrs. Murry said.

A private Avalon boat club needs women to wait on tables and counsel children and the pay includes room and board.

One private establishment at Disneyland is looking for a salesgirl who is able to furnish her own transportation.

"Disneyland representatives won't be on the campus this year as in the past, since many of last year's employees are returning to help this year," Mrs. Murry commented.

However, Mrs. Murry has received a phone call from Disneyland Hotel asking that girls interested in performing as mermaids in the Hotel pool will be auditioned from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the Hotel.

Those seeking the position must be at least 18 years of age and have long hair.

Girls are asked to check with Mrs. Murry if they desire the position.

Male listings include delivery work, shoe salesmen, janitorial work at the post office and newspaper advertising men.

"Men with boat experience are also needed for the private Avalon boat club," Mrs. Murry added.

Each student wishing to receive a recommendation from Santa Ana College is required to fill out various employment forms before the interview.

Many of the available jobs require no previous experience and are five day jobs with at least $1.15 starting pay.

One very interesting opening for a woman is offered by a concern which needs an employee not planning to attend school next fall. The applicant must have drafting experience and starting pay is $320 per month.

Another babysitting job is available for a young woman at a beach home only seven blocks from the sandy shore.

On the first interview, it is very important for job seekers to be neat appearing, answer questions with "yes" rather than "yeah," and substitute smiling with smiling.

Also a background of references is helpful and a keen mind to answer employer's questions.

For saleswork, it is important for the applicant to brush up on eighth grade mathematics in order to pass the tests.

"As the weeks progress, I'm sure many jobs will be available for the ambitious students who attend SAC," Mrs. Murry concluded.

Tammaros Welcome Tiny Joanna Marie

"It's a girl," shouted Joe Tammaro at the Santa Ana Community Hospital last Friday morning, May 20, at 9:30 a.m.

Making her first appearance in Santa Ana was "the most beautiful baby," Joanna Marie Tammaro.

The young pride and joy of SAC Associated Student vice-president Joan Tammaro and SAC student Joe, tipped the scales at 8 pounds, 5½ ounces.

"And she's 20 inches long, too," commented the proud mother.

Thursday night, May 19, Joan attended the final College Player's production, "The Man," and the next morning was admitted to the hospital.

It was this spirit and determination to attend school to the last that led her to say, "This is Santa Ana College's first baby!"

Both Joanna and mother Joan are doing fine and before Joan left the campus she promised to bring dark haired Joanna to the college.

'Dangerous Spy' Roams Campus; Dyer Caught in Base Restricted Area

By Barbara Derdzinska

With the uproar on the international scene over spy planes and espionage Doug Dyer reveals the story of how he was almost shot for "spying."

"I wanted to take the road around El Toro to the mountains but I found that they had extended the base and taken in the old road," Doug remembered, "So I drove up to the main gate and asked what road to take and the guard told me to go around the station and take the first road. But this turned out to be a road inside the base although I didn't realize it at first."

So Doug continued on down the road until he came to a field on which were tanks, planes, and bombs. Since by now he realized he had taken a wrong turn he stopped and wandered over to the field to see if he could find someone to direct him.

"HALT" said a voice behind him.

Doug turned to find a guard pointing a .45 automatic at him.

The guard pointed out that there was a sign which said that anyone found in the area would be shot on sight. So Doug found himself being escorted to the intelligence officers office.

"They asked me to state my name, rank, and serial number. When I told them I was a civilian they didn't believe me so I pulled out my SAPS card and other ID," Doug laughed.

"For a while I was worried. They called the gate but the guard didn't remember any civilians. But finally when the big brass called in the guards and I identified the one who had directed me, the guard remembered," said Doug.

"They still couldn't understand how a civilian had got on base without a pass but they decided to get me off before the general found out, so I was given a full military escort off the base," Doug concluded.

Council Comments

By Barbara Derdzinska

In the absence of AS secretary Anna Lou Brewer, the newly elected secretary for next semester, Kay Black, took minutes of this week's student council meeting.

Alan Leonard gave the ending balances for the publicity, social and assemblies and rallies accounts.

Ending balances as of April 30 are assemblies and rallies, $8.87; social, $1,055.33; and publicity, $9.40.

Ardith Munro reported that she sent flowers in the name of the student council to AS vice president Joan Tammara on the birth of her baby.

She announced that she was getting tapes of the band considered for the spring banquet. All other arrangements for the event have been made or are in the process of being made.

Larry Keith announced that the last assembly of the year would be on Thursday and would star Ed Rice, Bob Ballew, and himself in a talent show entitled "Playfully Yours."

Kathy Kennedy stated that publicity for the assembly has been made and is up and that she would also use a sound truck to publicize the assembly. She asked that the student council members attend and use "word of mouth" to publicize the assembly.

AMS president Don Bissonnette reported that all the arrangements for the Men of the Year banquet had been completed. Ten student body presidents from Orange County high schools will also be honored.

Leonard reported that next year's budget is almost completed and as soon as it is mimeographed it will be presented to the council for discussion and approval.

Bissonnette made a motion that the council rescind last week's motion concerning alcohol. Mike O'Sullivan seconded the motion.

The motion read that the student council recommend through the dean of students to the administration that any student found drinking or under the influence of alcohol on campus or at any school sponsored function, be expelled or suspended for the semester and that his student body card be picked up.

The motion to rescind was defeated.

The council adjourned.

Rice, Keith, Ballew - Talented Trio Present Student Produced Assembly

By Barbara Derdzinska

Ed Rice, Larry Keith, and Bob Ballew presented the first completely student produced assembly "Playfully Yours" as the last assembly of the year yesterday.

The assembly came about as a mutual idea after the highly successful talent assembly.

"The assembly was a challenge to us and helped us in working with an audience on a more relaxed basis," said Ed Rice.

"All our material was stolen," he admitted.

Rice, Keith, and Ballew have been active in dramatics all year. Besides helping on sets, costumes, and other backstage work for productions they have taken roles in the plays.

Keith, in addition to serving as commissioner of assemblies and rallies played Doolittle in "Pyg-malion," Doug in "The Man," Old Man Peck in "Green Grow the Lilacs," and the lead in "Princess Tok Tok."

Ballew directed "Tok Tok," played Higgins in "Pygmalion," Curly McLain in "Green Grow the Lilacs," Armstrong in "The Man," and Mr. Gill in "The Show-Off." He was also stage manager for "The Show-Off."

Rice played the lead in "The Man," was Aubrey Piper in "The Show-Off," played the peddler in "Green Grow the Lilacs," and had a role in "Pygmalion."

Keith and Ballew were also active in dramatic productions last year.

All three plan to go to New York this summer and then enroll at Arizona State College for the fall semester. The trio will continue their dramatic studies there.

Rice came to Santa Ana College after two years at UCLA to fulfill personal desires to take some subjects he had always wanted to take such as French, philosophy, and drama. Ballew sold him on the idea of SAC.

Keith came to SAC directly from high school in Pennsylvania. Ballew attended USC for a year and a half.

The three have taken part in several assemblies and each time reveal some new facet. Novel ideas are revealed each time.

For the election assembly they composed a song about each candidate. Keith revealed his singing talents at an assembly.

Tattlers Publish Literary Efforts

Tavern Post, Santa Ana College's annual literary magazine, was distributed this week by members of Tavern Tattlers, publishers of the magazine.

Edited by freshman Sherry McCuistion the publication contains stories, poems, and essays by Don writers.

Others on the staff are Marcia Oliver, assistant editor; Pat Roberts, Nancy McNeil, and Charles Perrier, associate editors; Willie Sprague, art editor; and William Gillespie, business manager.

Faculty advisers for the publication are Lota Blythe and Donald Minnick.

The publication is printed by the Santa Ana City Schools with the advice of head printer Richard Smith.

Among the contributors are Mary Hayden, Susan Scott, Dorothy Jennings, Sherry McCuistion, Mildred Patterson, Michelle Morris, Romaine Malloy, Sidney Engstrom, Charles Perrier and Clarence Tom.

Others whose work is included in Tavern Post are Margaret Laird, Landon Belveal, Nancy McNeil, Pat McCarthy, Mary Hayden, Beth Harrison, Lois Carroll, William Treadway, Sue Schlice and Russell Young.

Story Picked to Cop Two Mile at Modesto

Four Santa Ana College athletes will make the trip to Modesto, scene of the State Junior College track and field Finals, tomorrow night.

Still in competition after top notch efforts in the Southern California Meet last week at Mt. San Antonio College are two miler Dale Story, miler Max Cheney, and discus men Doug Stoner and Ben Bryant.

JC javelin champ Larry Stuart will also make the trip to compete in the open javelin in the California Relays held at Modesto on the same night.

A pair of firsts by Story and Stoner, a third by Cheney, and Bryant's fourth place sparked the Dons to 30 points, the highest number by any Eastern Conference team and good enough for a fourth place slot in the final standings at the So. Cal. Meet.

Powerful Los Angeles City College, high scorer in last week's warmup with 71 points, looms as the favorite to cop the State Title tomorrow night. The Cubs will get most of their competition from Bakersfield, whose 53 points captured second place at Mt. SAC.

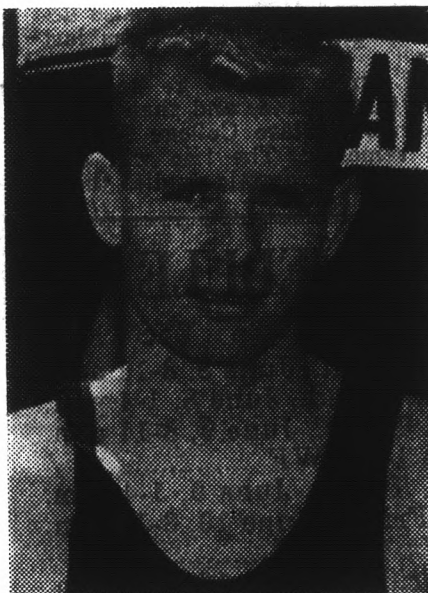

Story will get the favorite's role in the two mile Saturday on the strength of his record shattering performance in the So. Cal. Meet. The Don distance ace toured the eight laps in 9:15.2 to top Ron Larriou's old meet mark of 9:25.7 set in 1957. He has run a 9:14.6 this year.

SAC's other first place came in the discus as Stoner's 162 ft. 9 1/2 in. heave bettered all other efforts.

Cheney finished third in a 4:18 mile to qualify for the State Meet. Story, who had won the conference mile three weeks ago, setting a new EC record of 4:13.7, did not run the four lapper.

Bryant placed fourth in the discus with a 141 ft. 1/2 in. toss.

Dons who went to the So. Cal. Meet but did not qualify were Steve Rogers in the broad jump, Dave Ascher in the discus, Stoner and Bryant in the shot put, Dave Nunez in the high hurdles, Willie Carroll in the lows, and Gary Bulard in the 100 and 220.

Young Named On EC Squad

Third baseman Bernie Young was the lone Santa Ana College player to make the Eastern Conference all star team chosen by the circuit sportswriters.

Young, who led the Dons in practically every major batting department, was the writers' unanimous choice for the first team hot corner spot. A freshman from Santa Ana High who was an all CIF performer for the Saints last year, Bernie posted a .327 batting average in EC play and a season mark of .360.

Player of Year

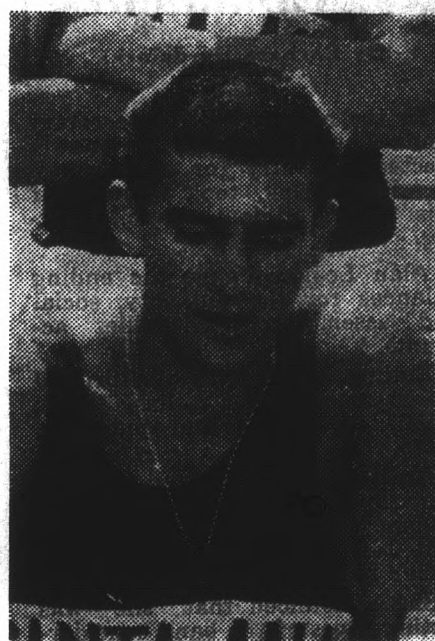

Citrus utility man Ezell Singleton, who doubled as a pitcher and second baseman and hurled a no hitter against the Dons, was named the Player of the Year.

Eastern Conference champion Orange Coast landed three players on the first team and three more on the second squad.

First team selections included pitchers Chuck Lauritson of Orange Coast and Dave Peterson of San Bernardino, catcher Mike DeFrank of Orange Coast, first baseman Gary Hokenson of Riverside, second baseman Ben Macias of Chaffey, third baseman Young of Santa Ana, shortstop Fred Bernal of Mt. San Antonio, outfielders Larry Avants of Coast, Bill Rose of Riverside, Butch Crews and Bill Steele of San Bernardino, and utility man Singleton.

Honorable Mention

Don Net Entry Nabs High Spot In State Meet

Jim Allitto and Fred Wright, Santa Ana College's two representatives in the State Junior College tennis tournament, went all the way to the quarter finals last week at San Francisco before being eliminated by Santa Monica, the eventual second place team.

Allitto and Wright, who topped a doubles team from San Francisco City College in the opening round of the tourney, 6-3, 6-4, were eliminated by the Corsairs, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Menlo JC, sparked by Davis Cupper Chris Crawford, won the State Crown.

The two Dons had qualified to be one of the 16 teams invited to the meet by surviving the quarter finals of the Southern California Tournament two weeks ago at Cerritos.

Allitto was eliminated in the first round of singles competition.

Moore. Santa Ana finished the season in sixth place with a 3-11 record. It's seasonal slate was 10-16-1.

Sports Banquet Slated Thursday

Members of the Santa Ana College track, baseball, golf, tennis, swimming, and wrestling squads will be honored at the annual Spring Sports Banquet next Thursday evening at 6:30 in the Student Union.

Head Track coach Charles (Chuck) Coker of Occidental College will be the main speaker.

Athlete of Year

Highlights of the evening will be the presentation of the "Athlete of the Year" award for former athletic director Bill Cook and the highest scholarship by an athlete award presented by John "Sky" Dunlap, News Service Manager.

Letters will be given to their respective teams by John Ward, track; Arlin Pirtle, EC champion golf team; Cliff Rothrock, baseball; Myrel Moore, swimming; Russell Chesley, tennis; and George Farrier, wrestling.

Star at Stanford

Coker, who was a nationally famous football and track star at Modesto Junior College, starred in football at Stanford University after his duty with the Coast Guard. He started his coaching career at Bonita High School in 1950.

After two years of championship teams, he returned to Modesto as head track coach and assistant football mentor. He came to Occidental four years ago as track and football line coach and has kept the Tigers high in collegiate competition.

All sports fans, students and faculty are invited to attend. Tickets may be purchased in the Don Book Store.

Spotlight on Sports

By Jerry Wilcox
El Don Sports Editor

Basketball coach Bob Boyd reports that L. J. Wheeler, the much discussed prep phenom from Santa Ana High and his teammate, Tom Watford, will be wearing Don uniforms next year.

Wheeler, the 6 ft. 8 in. giant who was about to lead the Saints to the Sunset League Championship before the CIF eligibility committee caught up with him, is just the type of player that Boyd likes to work with. He's strong on the boards and should give the Dons the scoring punch that they didn't have last year.

Watford is a good outside man and could possibly move right in as a starting guard, a position left vacant by sophomores Don Livingston and Don McConnell.

Others reportedly heading for the SAC campus are Mater Dei hotshot Gerald Tardie and Tustin star Mark Metzinger.

When Fullerton's Leroy Neal set a new national Junior College record in the 880 last week at Mt. SAC, this corner couldn't help but feel happy for the Hornet distance ace.

Until now, Neal had been the best second place runner to go through Orange County schools in years. Leroy had always been a star in his own right, but he could never win the big ones.

For example, he has never defeated SAC's Dale Story. He has raced Story in the mile, two mile, and cross country duels in college and high school, but has never beaten the former Orange high flash.

In the Eastern Conference championship meet at Orange Coast Neal had his big chance. He was entered in the 880 and Story was skipping the half mile in favor of the mile and two mile.

Neal won the prelims, and in doing so, established a new conference record in 1:53.6. In the finals Leroy not only was defeated in a blanket finish by Chaffey's Jerry Brady, but saw his new record erased by a tenth of a second after only three days in the book.

His new national mark for the half mile is 1:51.8. Now with his luck, someone else will probably better it in the State Finals at Modesto tomorrow night.

Whoever inherits Cliff Rothrock's job as head Don baseball coach may find a pleasant surprise in store for him. The only first stringers missing from this year's lineup will be outfielder Harry Fulson and outfielder, second baseman Gary Sawyer.

Even with the large number of returnees, the Dons are still in dire need of a front line pitcher. Santa Ana chuckers posted only five complete games this year in 27 outings.
